RECTOR'S REFLECTION - JUNE 2025

I am writing this month's article two weeks prior to when I normally do. We just came off of our first successful new weekend schedule, relishing in the fact that Jesus is still Lord. Despite the hiccups that came up, he is still on his throne as King! Gratefully our first foray into a more "contemporary" service went really well, despite my poor attempt at leading the music (FYI it will get better and plans are already in motion to improve that aspect – namely taking me out of it!). The 8a folks breathed a sigh of relief realizing that the music in the bulletin was for the 10a folks and not them! And other than working with the 10a folks on getting up the communion rail and back to their pews in an orderly fashion, all went extremely well! And thanks to a cheap priest, Etsy, and the sewing abilities of Amy Fox we have four new altar hangings for the Chapel altar. All-in-all it's a win!

We will be ending May by gathering together for a Euchre Night and having some fun! In May we silenced the organ, readied the church for the repair work, blessed mothers of all makes and models, spent Saturdays on the soccer field, and gathered for coffee to talk about the world's problems and solve none of them. We also gathered to say good bye to Barb Reszko who was assigned to us for a year and half! We sent Barb off with our prayers and knowledge that she'll always have a home here. We did all of that while still gathering for prayer throughout the week, operating a Thrift Shop, and feeding those in need! May was busy, but busy being the church in Firelands.

June will find us in a similar vein: For those who are interested on Saturday the 14th we will be heading to Trinity Cathedral to celebrate Barb's ordination to the diaconate. As the parish where she "cut her teeth" (perhaps not the most apt description of her field education time with us), I am hoping we will be able to carpool and caravan to the Cathedral to support her in this important step and have some numbers to help show our love and support of her! On the 21st the Vestry will be gathering at Bellwether Farm to spend time discussing and discerning where the Spirit is leading Grace Church in this next year or two. We will also be looking at how we, as an organization, have evolved and discern better ways to meet the challenges of the time based on this new mode of existence. We will also have a special prayer and donuts with dad for Father's Day. And we will do all of this while still gathering for prayer, clothing the naked – thanks to the Thrift Shop and the many volunteers it takes to keep the doors open, and feeding the hungry – thanks to the many volunteers who cook and serve the meal, as well as bring in items to give away!

Lastly, in June I am hoping to find a couple of volunteers to assist in leading Children's Chapel on the 1st Sundays of the month. With Barb preaching on the first Sundays of the month it allowed me to be a volunteer for Children's Chapel with Jane Wood. Given that Barb is leaving us, we need a couple of volunteers to help. Prior to doing it there is an online Safe Church training that volunteers must attend, and I am happy to meet and plan with the team who is willing. If you feel so moved or called to help I (and Melissa and I am sure the other parents who have yet to darken our doors) will be grateful!

See you in church on Sunday,
Fr. Seth

SABBATH DAYS

One addition to our monthly calendar you may notice is a second Sabbath Day for me on Fridays. One may wonder: Why does he deserve another day off? Given the addition of our Saturday evening service, the Vestry wanted to ensure I was taking adequate time for myself and for my family - a sentiment I am grateful to them for recognizing and ensuring that it happens!

The notion of Sabbath is one of the core tenants of the Law given to Moses by God, and it finds its origins in creation itself. While I am not in the office, please know that you and the parish at large are being prayed for during my recitation of the Liturgy of the Hours. I appreciate everyone's efforts in keeping communication with me during these days of rest to pastoral emergencies - it does allow me to unwind and enjoy time with the family. It also allows me to be a better priest to you all when I have time to refill my own tank.

~Fr. Seth

JUNE IS PRIDE MONTH

As we approach June things will continue to get busier. June is a special month: We join the LGBTQIA+ community in celebrating Pride. A month where we spend time celebrating the amazing impact that LGBTQIA+ persons have had and continue to have in our world and in our community. While we celebrate their achievements and contributions to society, we also have to acknowledge the hurt and harm that has been inflicted on them, even by the church. There may be some among us that think it is too much or that we pay “too much attention”, or that we are giving everyone a month (think of our African American sisters and brothers in February) and the “grief” we hear.

Episcopalians have always had a long history of inclusion, of being the “middle ground”. While we claim a common heritage with Catholics there are ideas and polity that we disagree with and find ourselves aligning more closely with our Orthodox or Protestant cousins. We were one of the first denominations to wrestle with the notion of ordaining women and openly gay persons and have always sided with the option of being more inclusive than exclusive!

Like celebrating Black History Month our celebration of Pride Month brings attention to this group of individuals who, because they are “different” than the majority have been ostracized and often times relegated to second or third-class citizens. And while we may not be African Americans or find ourselves in the LGBTQIA+ community, as followers of Jesus Christ we are called to “respect the dignity of every person” (as our Baptismal Covenant has been reminding us this Eastertide), to be allies, we are called to give voice to those whose voices have tried to be silenced, we are called to stand with those whom the world has cast aside. In the Gospels Jesus never once aligned himself with those in secular or religious positions of “power” – Jesus is ALWAYS found with the outcast and the voiceless.

Our participation in Shoreline Sandusky Pride may look a little different this year. While myself, the Vestry, and I daresay the vast majority of our parish, relishes being the LONE church who has a presence at these events this year we may not be as visible – not because we don’t want to be, but because some of the organizers may have been victims of hate preached from a pulpit. While I am saddened at this, I (and I dare say again that most of us) do not want to re-traumatize or continue the trauma by forcing the issue. That being said I still think it is important that the community sees us as we plan to march in the parade and/or stand outside our church to let those know that there is a place, that like God, loves you – the authentic you – the real you and not the you that is shown to the world to survive in it, but you – no exceptions! There will be more information about this later in the month, but please put it on your calendars now: Saturday, June 28th from noon – 5p Shoreline Park.

There is a fundamental need in humanity to have a place where we feel comfortable – it is why we decorate our homes the way that we do, it is why we have our favorite chairs. Church is no different – we get used to, we get comfortable to the way things are done. Imagine never being comfortable in your own skin, let alone being told you are going to hell for how God has made you; yet, in the same breath, being told all are created in God’s image and likeness?! This is the battle we as a church face (it is a battle any church is going to have to face) – the years of being told that you are wrong or that somehow God has made a mistake in creating you. This is the image and the perception and in some horrific instances the reality that we, as followers of Jesus Christ, have to combat.

It is for these reasons that Pride Month is so important. Those first employees and patrons of the Stonewall Inn had enough and fought against the police and the picketers and the people that thought they were “odd” because they were being their authentic selves – the self God created them to be – the self made in God’s image and likeness. The Stonewall riots paved the way for the gay rights movement in the United States and around the world. In that scenario, where do you think would Jesus be? He would have been with those standing up for their right to love.

Church Renovation

In this fourth installment we are witnessing the beginning of the church work. All 60 pews have been removed and will be heading out of town to be stripped, repaired, and repainted before coming back and being some of the last things to go back into the church.

While they are gone the workers will begin with the electrical work of adding more lighting to the nave, transept, and sanctuary of the church. Some of this lighting will be functional (i.e., helping folks be able to read and navigate the church), while others will highlight the beautiful stained glass, and liturgical furnishings in the church: the altar, ambo, pulpit, and baptismal font. It'll get ugly before it gets pretty, but such is life and in the end it will enhance our beautiful building.

As always, if you have any questions or want to stop up before or after Mass on the weekend please know you are more than encouraged to do so!

Fr. Seth

Pride Eucharist

As followers of Jesus Christ we are called to "respect the dignity of every person" (as our Baptismal Covenant has been reminding us this Eastertide), to be allies. We are called to give voice to those whose voices have tried to be silenced. We are called to stand with those whom the world has cast aside. In the Gospels Jesus never once aligned himself with those in secular or religious positions of "power" – Jesus is ALWAYS found with the outcast and the voiceless.

At our Masses on Saturday, June 28th and Sunday, June 29th we will acknowledge and pray for those who are part of, or support, the LBGTQIA+ community.

Fr. Seth's dear friend (and brother from another mother), Deacon Paul Scanlan will be here to preach at the Sunday 10am service..
